Men's $27.75 Silk-Lined Suits at $17.75

Fifth Fl.

These are belated Suits. They were down for delivery before Easter. The manufacturer slipped a cog, and here they come several days behind time. Our disappointment demanded a salve. We secured it in the form of a substantial price concession that you may enjoy if you are alert.

They are Sack Suits in the nobbiest models, made of pure worsteds and unfinished fabrics, hand-tailored, hand-felled edges, trimmed with Brainard & Armstrong pure dye silk. The range of sizes include 34 to 46 chest measure for men of normal proportions as well as those that are technically classified as "slims" and "stouts."

Every Suit in the lot was intended to sell at $27.75; choice at.....

Don't Be Fooled by Overstatements in Advertisements

This Is Addressed Especially to Women

Within the last few days a certain merchant, not a thousand miles away, has said in the papers that he was selling "$35 Tailored Suits at $25."

We were naturally very much interested, and sent to the store and bought some of the suits. And let us tell you what we found.

These suits which were advertised as "$35 suits"—and which you, no doubt, in the sincerity of your hearts, believed to be $35 suits—turned out to be not so good a quality as we sell regularly in this store at $22.50.

Now, who are you going to believe? We could say very easily that our $22.50 suits are "$35 suits for $22.50." And if you compared our $22.50 suits with the "$35 suits for $25" that we are talking about, you would think that ours were wonderful by comparison.

Let it be understood clearly that our suits exceed those sold on Sixth Avenue in quality by at least 25%; and let it be understood that we will not misinform you in the papers. We do not believe in your coming in enthusiastic, and having you go out disappointed; and we do not want other merchants to catch us saying "$35 suits for $25," where we sell better, regularly, for $22.50.

We Give Surety Stamps and Redeem Them for Premiums or Merchandise

"TREMONT"—while possessing the merit of being conservative, it is nevertheless an out-of-the-ordinary style
